JUDGMENT

Petitioner is a foreigner. He complains that the police did not act promptly on a complaint made by him regarding loss of certain valuables kept in a hotel room where he was staying. The learned Government pleader submits on instructions that the petitioner was not ready to render the first information statement or make a written complaint in the aforesaid incident. Under the circumstances it is directed that if the petitioner appears before the second respondent and makes a complaint either in writing or makes a first information statement that shall be recorded and due action taken thereon in accordance with law.
